Mr. Robinson

A Very Special

Thank You to:

Simon

Robinson

forty years of dedicated service as a custodian. Also for the example of loyalty and faithfulness — 35 years of perfect attendance at his job. For the quiet dignity he brought to the never ending job of making Edna schools a better place for learning.

Mr. Robinson, the annual staff is indeed proud to dedicate this Roundup '83 to you.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson ready to enjoy the Spaghetti Supper.

Friends visit with Mr. Robinson.

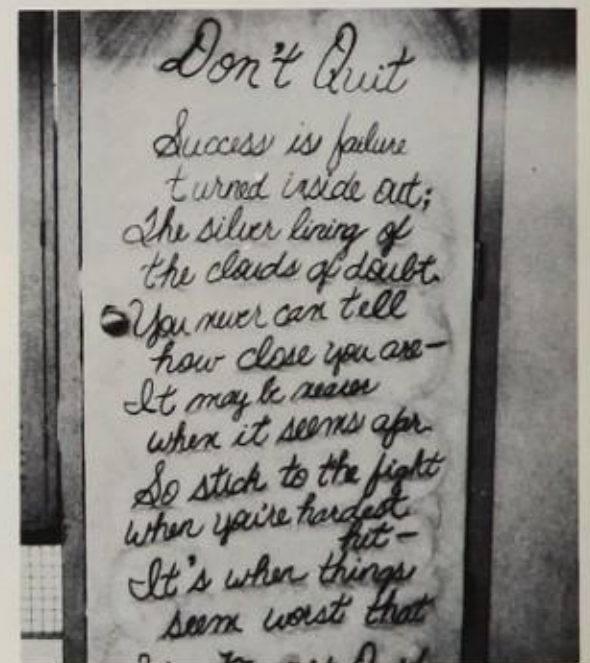

Edna High School means different things to different people. With many hours of work, play and study the year has been most rewarding. We tried to present here, not only pictures, but feelings and a few events of the school year. We hope that in the future these memories will become even more important to the students and faculty that were part of EHS 1982-83.

Cowboy Band

Mr. George Arnold brought excitement, hard work and a few new ideas to the Cowboy Band. In the year of adjustment the band won a 1st rating at Marching Contest, presented excellent Friday night shows, got a 2nd in concert and sight reading contest, won many medals at solo and ensemble contest and sent the new stage band to state in the jazz ensemble contest. Hard working Seniors helped lift the spirit and pride of the Cowboy Band. Mr. Steve Smith was the new assistant.

The E.H.S. Choir had a very successful year. They presented the student body with a Christmas Concert, and also gave their annual Spring Concert. They participated in U.I.L. District, Regional, Area, and State Choir tryouts. Six students qualified for regional. Chris McBride was named alternate for state and received a first rating in state solo. Lita Courtemanche made the all state choir and went to San Antonio to perform. The choir received a first rating at Contest this spring. The Beau and Belle participated in several special groups that sang with the choir and the jazz band. The choir presented special programs for the community and the other schools. The seniors in the Choir will be missed. Pictured left are the officers. Seated: President Eric Stafford, Vice-President Cheryl Glover. Student Council

Student Council had a good year with participation in Summer Workshops, District Leadership Workshop, District Conventions, Mid-Winter and State Convention leading the way. Local and state projects kept the council and many volunteers busy. Secret pals, Lance Machine, calendars, Spirit contests, Blood Drives, door decorating, tree trimming, football programs and special fund drives were all part of 82-83. The Council was named an Outstanding Council at State Convention in April.

The Club made their presence known by decorating lockers with blue and white streamers during Homecoming, along with break-throughs for football games and spirit signs. The Club painted hearts on faculty and students for Valentines Day and bought air machines for the teachers lounge. Penny Bonnot and club members ended the year with a party at Lake Texana.

Drama Club

Drama Club had a very successful year. It was filled with fun, work, and memories (both happy and sad). The club presented M*A*S*H for the fall production.

The play "Inherit the Wind" was selected and presented for the District One-Act play competition where they won first. Several members received individual awards.

The 1982-83 year concluded with the Annual Drama Club Banquet and initiation of new Thespians.

The FHA calender contained enough projects to keep officers and members very busy. Their dedication has made Edna High School a better place. Some of their projects included serving coke floats to freshmen during orientation, making spirit boosters for students and faculty, holding an open house, and planning a special activity for each day of National FHA Week.

Edna Chapter FFA worked to have an outstanding year. Projects started early in 1982 for the County Fair. The young men and women participated in local area, district, state and national events. Their banquet featured former President Dennis Bain, now a student at Texas A & M. These young people did everything from helping the Drama department to helping raise retirement funds for Mr. Simon Robinson. FFA adds much to Edna High.

The O.E.A. Club, sponsored by Mrs. Gladys Manning, started out the year by electing officers for the 1983-84 school year. Their activities for the year included the annual O.E.A. Employer and Employee Banquet in which Boss of the Year, Mr. John Mark Bonnot, was chosen. On February 19, several members of the O.E.A. Club attended Area contest in Houston. For Valentines' Day the club served cookies to the Sr. Citizens for a community service project. The money making project for the club was running the concession stand at the home football games. Varsity Volleyball

The Edna Cowgirls Volleyball team had a fairly good season. The district competition was tough and they showed steady improvement as the season advanced. They played in the Edna Tournament and El Campo Tournament receiving second place and consolation trophies respectively. District honors were won by Dana Gaskin and Melinda Stancik — 1st Team and Sue Robinson and Julia Valicek got 2nd Team. Mrs. Dorthy Johnson coached Varsity and Miss Denise Flagg coached J.V. and Freshman Managers (in the team picture above) were Youlanda Allen, Karen Sorensen, and Cherie Wyer. Pictured to the right are the captains: Dana Gaskin, Melinda Stancik and Sue Robinson.

Coach McBride presents Raymond with an All-Tourney trophy.

The Cowboy Basketball team played highly spirited games with some going as losses and others as wins. The Cowboy games were always exciting — win or lose. The Cowboys hosted the 2nd Annual Edna Basketball Tournament and won 1st place. They also played in the Yoakum Tournament winning consolation, and in the Refugio Tournament winning 4th place. Maxwell Bryant and Raymond Barnes won district honors for the season. The Cowboys will be remembered for their never-quit style of play.

Girls Track team had a very successful year. The 400m. relay set a new record at Regional and competed at state. Sandra Long also qualified for state in the 800m. run. The team placed high in several meets and finished second at district. Youlanda Allen had a very good year in shot and discus. Ronda Koop did well in high jump and triple jump. Dana Gaskins placed high in the 100 and 200m. events at almost every meet. Coach Stafford and Coach Flagg 2worked hard with these young women. Coach Davis

The Edna Cowboy baseball team had its best season in the past years. The overall record was 9-12 with a 4-8 district record. The highlight of the season was the 5-2 win over Kenedy (Kenedy's first district loss in two years — Yea Cowboys.)

All-District selections were: Duane Muncrief — 1st team pitcher; Shannon Orsak — 1st team outfield; Chris Hyek — 1st team designated hitter; Brent Blonar — 2nd team catcher; Michael Rab — honorable mention outfield.

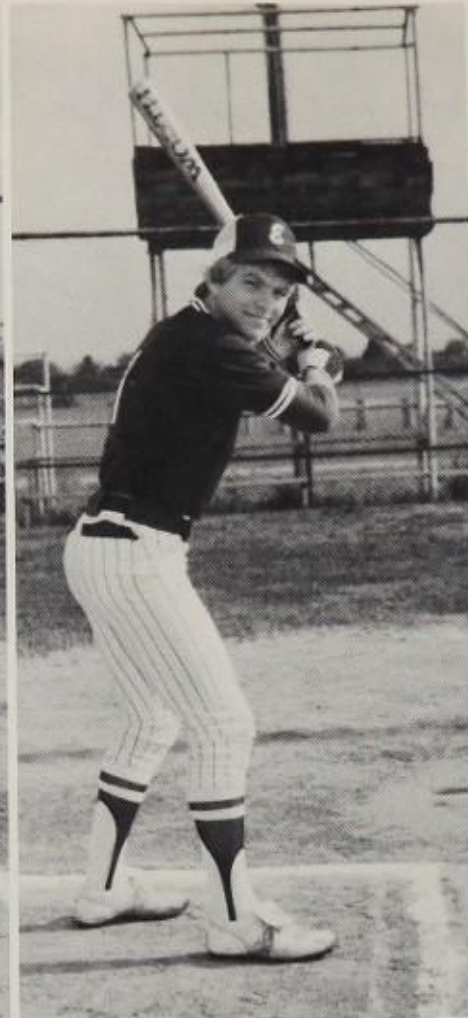

Coach Davis coached hard, as evidenced by their play. He and the team should be congratulated for their fine play.

Girls Golf

The Edna Golf team looked promising despite only four participants. All four girls played well, placing 4th in District. The golf team participated in several tournaments including Cuero, Yoakum, and Goliad. They received second place at the Goliad tournament.

Cathy Psencik, a four year member of the golf team, did a great job, along with her three underclass teammates. The underclass team members will be returning next year to find help from some new golfers and continue their play with even more success.
